

LAKE BOAT CAPSIZES.

Crew of House of David Vessel Missing in Lake Michigan.

MILWAUKEE, October 31.—The two-masted sailing vessel Rosabelle, of the House of David, Benton Harbor, Mich., was found floating bottom side up in Lake Michigan, forty-two miles east of Milwaukee, Sunday. It was reported today by officers of car ferry No. 4, Ann Arbor, who made the discovery.

No trace of the crew of four was found. The Rosabelle was used to bring supplies to the House of David. According to Capt. Olson, United States coast guard, the vessel probably sprang a leak, swamped and rolled over. There was no storm and no signs of collision.

BALTIMORE BANKER DIES.

BALTIMORE, October 31.—Christopher G. Shriver, veteran financier and president of the Metropolitan Savings Bank, died yesterday, aged eighty-one. He had been connected with the Metropolitan Bank since its foundation in 1867 and had been its head since 1918. He was one of the first bank officers to introduce certified public accountancy.

Mr. Shriver enlisted in the Confederate army in 1861, and served during the entire war. He is survived by his wife, two brothers and two sisters. The late Cardinal Gibbons was a close friend of the family, spending his vacations at their home at Union Mills, Md.

JAMES E. ALEXANDER DIES AT HIS ALEXANDRIA HOME

Prominent Member of Masonic Fraternity and for 54 Years Employed in Navy Department.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., October 31.—James E. Alexander, seventy-nine years old, one of the city's oldest and best known residents, died a few minutes before 7 o'clock last night at his residence, 403 Cameron street, after a long illness. He had been in failing health for a long time.

His funeral will take place at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon from the M. E. Church South. Services will be conducted by Rev. Dr. E. V. Register, pastor of that church, and burial will be in the Methodist Protestant cemetery.

The deceased is survived by his wife, two daughters, Miss Edna H. Alexander and Mrs. Charles M. Stump, and a son, Elmer L. Alexander. The deceased was a veteran Navy clerk and retired from the service in August, 1920, after having been continuously on duty for fifty-four years in the Navy Department in Washington. At the time of his retirement he was chief clerk in the bureau of navigation of the department.

The deceased was born in Allegheny, Pa., but had been a resident of Alexandria for the past fifty-seven years, having located here in 1864. He was prominently identified with the Masonic fraternity of this city, having been at the time of his death the oldest past master of Andrew Jackson Lodge, of which lodge he was secretary for the past forty years, was past grand high priest of the Royal Arch Chapter in Virginia, member of Acacia Temple, Mystic Shrine, and also a member of the Scottish Rite bodies. Mr. Alexander was secretary of that organization for the past forty years, and for twenty-five years he was superintendent of the Sunday school of the Methodist Episcopal Church South.

HIT GRAVESTONE; 3 MAY DIE. MEMPHIS, Tenn., October 31.—Three men may die and a fourth will be slightly injured when the automobile in which they were riding skidded off the road near Water Valley, Miss., early Sunday, ran into a cemetery and collided with a monument on one of the graves.

MAJ. JOHN W. B. MELVIN DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Was Formerly Connected With Star's Editorial Force and Served With A. E. F. Overseas.

Maj. John W. B. Melvin, about thirty-seven years old, died at Walter Reed Hospital yesterday, after an illness of slightly less than one year. Maj. Melvin was employed in the editorial department of The Evening Star for several years previous to the outbreak of the war.

Shortly after the declaration of war he enlisted in the Engineer Corps and was stationed at Washington barracks. On September 28, 1917, he received his commission as second lieutenant in the Infantry of the National Army.

He became a first lieutenant in the Quartermaster's Corps on October 22, 1917, while with the 301st Infantry Regiment at Newport News, Va. When the regiment went to France on November 12, 1917, Melvin was with them. During February, 1918, he was transferred to the headquarters pay section at Tours, France, and was commissioned captain of the Transportation Corps on October 1, 1918. On May 2, 1919, he was promoted to major, and returned to this country October 30 following.

When the National Army was demobilized his commission was made a permanent one in the Regular Army, and he was placed in the war plans division of the general staff here until January 25, 1920. From that date until November 15 he again was with the 301st Infantry, which he accompanied home November 15, 1920. He was first treated at Walter Reed Hospital, Army and Navy General Hospital, and then at Walter Reed Hospital for treatment.

Maj. Melvin was the son of Rev. A. D. Melvin and Mrs. Belle W. Melvin of Washington. Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

LEAVES MANY REQUESTS TO NEPHEWS AND NIECES Will of Virginia Byrd Jones Disposes of Estate of More Than $50,000.

IN MEMORIAM.

HOLSTEAD. In loving remembrance of our dear mother, EMMA HOLSTEAD, who died five years ago today, October 31, 1916. Oh, for a look on that sweet face, A touch of that vanished hand, A sound of that voice we loved so well. That is now in the promised land. My heart has been sad and lonely Since you have been away. And it seems a thousand lonely years Instead of five today. HER DEVOTED DAUGHTER AND SON-IN-LAW, LUCIA AND WILLIAM THOMPSON.

KING. In sad but loving remembrance of my dear mother, JENNIE V. KING, who died two years ago today, October 31, 1919. May she rest in peace. CARRIE. KING. In sad but loving remembrance of my dear mother, JENNIE V. KING, who died two years ago today, October 31, 1919. Out in life's garden, where sympathy grew, God planted a soul, 'twas the soul of you: Life's wonderful garden Lore, seeking, waiting, through Till he found a heart, 'twas the heart of you. We have sought through life's garden of roses and sweet blossoms, all few. And we found one sweet blossom, all few. Love, sympathy, faith, all unchanging and true. And the heart of our flower, dear mother, 'twas you. JIM.

MOPKINS. In memory of our beloved daughter, ELLA MOPKINS, who died four years ago today, October 31, 1917. In our hearts a memory lingers. Sweetly, tenderly, fond and true; There is not a day that passes That we do not think of you. MOTHER AND BROTHER. POSEY. In loving remembrance of my dear mother, OCTAVIA GRAY POSEY, who passed away one year ago today, October 31, 1920. In my heart your memory lingers. Sweetly, tenderly, fond and true; There is not a day that passes That we do not think of you. HER DAUGHTER, OCTAVIA C. WEDDINGTON.

POSEY. In loving remembrance of my darling sister, OCTAVIA GRAY POSEY, who left me one year ago today. Oh, may we meet dear sister, Where friends no more shall weep. For those who die in Jesus Their death is only sleep. SISTER, ELA B. JENKINS. POSEY. In sad but loving remembrance of my dear mother, OCTAVIA GRAY POSEY, who departed this life one year ago today, October 31, 1920. Rest on dear mother, your cares are o'er. Your willing hands can work no more; When you reached your last farewell, The blow meant more than words can tell. Our home is quite another place Without the smile of your dear face. LOVING DAUGHTERS, AMANDA AND OCTAVIA.

At the bedside of my dear husband, Night by night and day by day, I watched his loving hands grow thinner And saw him slowly fade away. I tried so hard to keep you with me, But God willed that you should go. So I yielded to the parting, Though it filled my heart with woe. MAY K. WILLIAMS AND DAUGHTER, HELEN C. HALL. WILLIAMS. In memory of my beloved son, CHARLES S. WILLIAMS, who died October 31, 1920. Today recalls sad memories Of my beloved son gone to rest; Days of sadness still come o'er me, Secret tears do often flow from me. But your kindness keeps you near me, Though you died one year ago. YOUR LOVING MOTHER, ANNE M. CHENEY.
